VOL. IX. RENO, WASHOE COUNTY. NEVADA. TUESDAY. AUGUST 31. 1880. NO. 130.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The circus left so many tramps in Battle Mountain that the citizens had to organize a guard to protect property at night. The tramps have since thinned out.

A Battle Mountain man awoke to see his trousers and shirt disappearing through the window. He grabbed the "last garment," but the burglar got away with the breeches.

Mr. Walsh sent this letter to Mr. Wiley at Aurora, Neb.: "I challenge you to a deathly duel. You name place. I reserve the choice of weapons." But Mr. Wiley had Mr. Walsh arrested.

A hill in Texas, on the Brazos River, is believed by the inhabitants to possess curative qualities. A speculator has bought it, in the belief that there are millions in the business of selling the earth for medicine.

The concussion of the first shot in a Leadville bar room fight extinguished the lights; but that did not stop the hostilities, and all the chambers of four revolvers were emptied in the darkness. Two of the combatants were dead when the lamps were lighted.

Major Bruce, who owns a large farm in Washington county, Oregon, was badly gored on the 26th by a fine blooded Jersey bull. The enraged animal attacked Bruce and tossed him in the air, and then trampled on him. His injuries are very serious.

Twenty-Five Years Imprisoned by His Brother.

A great sensation has been caused in Berks county, Pa., by the discovery of Benjamin Zechler, a lunatic, who had been confined in a house in Albany township by his brother, Jacob Zechler, for twenty-seven years. He was chained to the floor in a small house built especially for him, and in a small room eight feet square, and with only one window for ventilation. This chamber was in a shocking state. The man was perfectly nude, and in the entire twenty-seven years he had not been washed, combed or shaved. He made a desperate resistence when the officers attempted to remove him, but he was subsequently taken to the insane asylum. The case is to be investigated by the authorities.

Domestic Discipline in Alturas.

Wife-beating is getting to be very popular in this section. We have heard of three cases in the past two weeks.

Stop That Cough

With a sample bottle of Kaiser's German Elixir. This is the most wonderful cough remedy ever introduced, being mild, yet positive in its action and soothing under all circumstances. Old and young may use it with perfect security. It is rich in the medicinal properties of tar, wild cherry and horehound. Ask your druggists, Messrs. Osburn & Shoemaker, about merits. They sell large quantities of it and say it supercedes all others. The genuine bears the Prussian coat of arms and the facsimile signature of Dr. Kaiser on the wrapper and has his name blown in every 75 cent bottle. Samples 25 cent. Large size 75 cents. feb2-d&w

CAMPAIGN PAPERS.

For one dollar we will send the Daily GAZETTE until November 5th, and the Weekly for fifty cents.

LET US STAND TOGETHER.

Some Washoe county parties fear that the anti-Sharon fight will be carried too far. They want to know what would become of us if the fight narrowed down to Sharon and Fair? As we understand the situation, this does not enter into the calculation, for the reason that if a Republican Legislature is elected Fair is beaten, and vice versa. So that the question of November 3d must settle the dispute as to whether we will have a Republican or a Democratic Senator. We have believed and do now, that we can best win that day by saying openly, that if the people elect the Republican ticket our Legislature will vote for some one else than Mr. Sharon for Senator. This course is deemed unwise by some because they think Sharon can help the party with his contributions. It is also said by citizens of Reno, that if this county makes a strong but unsuccessful fight against Mr. Sharon, his friends will retaliate and Washoe county will get no favors from the Legislature. There is nothing in the latter objection, for the reason that whatever is done in caucus will be binding upon Washoe county Republicans the same as others, and while we want our delegation to work against Mr. Sharon in that caucus, yet if he is the choice of a majority, the very highest of patriotism would dictate that we send him back, rather than that the Democratic party should receive an ally in the Senate from this State. We do not want Washoe county to cut off her nose to spite her face, but we believe that this State is Republican, and that the vast majority of voters are opposed to Mr. Sharon. Therefore we do not want our representatives to give up the struggle as long as there is a reasonable show for success. The impression, which is already becoming strong, and which his friends are spreading industriously, that Sharon is sure to be elected, and that everybody had better jump right over in order to get anything out of it, is disgraceful, and we hope to see it react upon the cause. The anti-Sharon men will make a very creditable fight in the caucus next winter. Eureka county will come in strong for Wren, Washoe for Tritle, the middle counties for anyone but Sharon. The chances are good for a change of Senators, and we hope all who favor it will stand together and make a gallant fight.

A FIGHT FOR OFFICE.

If the Democrats are in this campaign fighting for anything but place and power, what is it? Do they appeal to the country on issues of principle? Their platform adopted at Cincinnati fails to state them. Does their candidate, General Hancock, represent any principle at stake? His political views are alone known to the people through his letter of acceptance. That letter is simply a declaration of general truths, to which no honest, intelligent man in the country, either Republican or Democrat, would make objection.

Going back to the Cincinnati platform, it is found to be non-comittal on the vital questions of the day. It does not affirm the right of Congress to refuse appropriations in order to coerce the Administration. The Democrats for months kept Congress in session on this issue last year. Why is it not stated in the platform? It is clearly a part of the new Gospel of the Democracy.

What is the financial policy of the Democrats? No man can interpret it in their platform. General Hancock hasn't any, so far as the country knows.

There are, however, two points in the Democratic platform which appear to be boldly expressed. The platform calls for free ships and a tariff for revenue only. This may suit some portions of the west, but is enough to ruin the party in Maine and Pennsylvania and all the manufacturing States. Free ships mean the destruction of the American ship-buiding interest. The Maritime provinces of Canada can build ships at least 25 per cent. cheaper than they can be built in Maine. As for the policy of protection, the American people are too strongly wedded to that to look with favor upon the "tariff for revenue only" plank.

The letter of acceptance of Mr. English does not throw much light upon the principles of the Democratic party. If any principle at all can be deduced from it, it is that no party should remain in power longer than twenty years, and that it is a bad thing to keep good men in office after their trustworthiness and efficiency have been proved by years of faithful service. The letter of Mr. English is little more than a plea for "a new deal." The Democratic party will next November get "a new deal." The nation will then deal it a blow from which it will not soon recover.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is not often that a romance is revealed by a will, as in the case of Miss Neilson's. The famous actress was married ten or twelve years ago to Philip Lee, an Englishman. The union was unhappy and she obtained a divorce in New York. She had subsequently many suitors, but never married again. Among them was Admiral Glyn of the British navy. Miss Neilson once said of this gentleman: "If I respected the man less I would marry him; as it is I cannot. He would bore me to death in a year." But in her will she left him nearly $200,000.

The death of the Ute chieftain Ouray makes fresh Indian troubles in Colorado probable. His death destroys the hope that the Utes would sign the treaty. The whites will be likely to enter the Reservation without further waiting and the Indians will attempt to drive them out. Gen. Sheridan is on the ground.

There was much suffering from heat in New York one day last week when the highest point touched by the mercury was 82. No one experiences any discomfort from such a temperature here. The humidity of the air on the Atlantic coast is what makes the heat so oppressive.

The British House of Lords will not last long in its present form, according to the London Truth, which says that it has only existed up to now because there has never been a Democratic House of Commons.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

It is said that Governor Perkins will declare September 9th a legal holiday.

Governor Stanford's house, Sacramento, is being fitted up for the reception of President Hayes.

Heavy rains at Portland. The forest fires have been extinguished. Considerable damage has been done to crops.

In the libel suit of Jas. A. Hall, against Wheeler, the editor of the Watsonville Transcript, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Colonel Gift's running horse Twilight, while in training at Sacramento Saturday, jumped the fence and was badly hurt, so that he will be withdrawn from the fall races.

The Roseburg Independent says that the mountains towards Coos Bay are on fire, and south of Canyonville immense trees are falling. Deer and bear seek the open prairies for safety.

One of the guards at the insane asylum at Steilacoom, W. T., was lately bitten on the hand by a lunatic. The hand is now frightfully swollen and bears evidence of blood poisoning.

The Walla Walla Union says: Recently, while Ferron and Brulette were thrashing in H. A. Bender's field near Frenchtown, the machine took fire from a hot journal and was completely destroyed.

A bull recently astonished a drug clerk in Oroville by entering the store. The knight of the mortar and pestle fired a charge of kerosene from an India rubber syringe, and the animal fled into the street.

To The Masonic Fraternity.

The Northwestern Masonic Aid Association of Chicago is the largest and most prosperous in the U. S. It now numbers nearly 8,000 members—Gives $8,500 coin to the heirs of deceased Masons—has paid out about $150,000 in six years, to widows and orphans and the annual cost of membership is but about one-fourth the expense of an ordinary insurance policy. There is no more certain, reliable or economical way of establishing an immediate estate, or providing for the future than is offered by the above institution. For further information and circulars apply or send to my office on the east side of Virginia street, south of the railroad, Reno, Nev.

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe.

The State of Nevada sends to George R. Hutchinson, Thomas M. Hutchinson, James Hutchinson and Louisa Stiger, heirs at law of Nancy L. Wheat, deceased, and Louisa Stiger, Administratrix, and W. H. Stiger, Administrator of the estate of Nancy L. Wheat, deceased, and W. H. Wheat, greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendants, by James A. Ferguson as plaintiff, in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. Said action is brought to recover payment of a promissory note executed by Nancy L. Wheat in her life time, said note now being the property of plaintiff, for the sum of two hundred dollars, to C. W. Jones and S. A. Jones, dated Sept. 6th, 1878, and became due in six months from date, said note and money to draw two per cent interest per month from date of note until paid. That the said Nancy L. Wheat also executed to said parties a mortgage on the south half of Lot 5, Block P, in the town of Reno, County of Washoe, and State of Nevada, to secure the payment of said note. That there is now due and unpaid, as claimed in the complaint on said note the sum of two hundred and fifty-two and 66-100 dollars gold coin. A decree of foreclosure of said mortgage and an order to sell said real property is prayed against all the defendants to said action. And there is also an order prayed for in said complaint directing the payment of said sum of money due with interest thereon from the moneys realized from the sale of said property with costs and attorney's fee, as in said mortgage provided, in the sum of one hundred dollars, and should there be any remaining moneys arising from the sale of said property, that such remainder be paid into Court to await the order of the Court for reasons set out in the complaint and for general relief; all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said County. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I, Mark Parish, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, this 27th day of July, A. D. 1880. SEAL.

Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe county.

A tall man wearing a white plug hat went to Hammersmith's for a shave this morning. The barber got one side of his face shaved and the other cheek well lathered when the train began to pull out. The stranger jumped from the chair, crowded his white hat on his head and made a rush for the train. He safely climbed aboard, and from the platform waved the white hat to the barber while he smilingly stroked his shaven cheek. It was'nt so much of a joke to the barber after all, for the stranger was in too much of a hurry to pay.

INTERESTING RUINS.

The Ups and Downs of Nevada Life—Towns That Sprung Up in a Month and Went Down as Rapidly.

Nevada is an interesting State, notwithstanding the vast stretches of desert and the monotonous landscape. The absence of trees and the clearness of the atmosphere enables one to see immense distances, and anyone acquainted with the country can entertain a whole carload of people by pointing out objects and places that have been read of by nearly every civilized man and woman. There is hardly a mile along the overland road that does not reveal something worthy of notice. It may be within a few feet of the car window, or it may appear only for a moment before some gateway in a distant mountain chain. One of the most exciting subjects of conversation with Eastern people who visit this coast is the deserted towns and cities which abound so plentifully. In the older States a deserted house is a great rarity, and it stirs the imagination of young and old. Wild legends of mystery are woven about it, and no end of crimes are attributed to its builders. How the stories of childhood come up now, about the boy that ran away and went to sea. How he came back to see his poor old mother, and how he found the house deserted, the windows broken, the gate hanging by one hinge the yard grown up with weeds; and how he went to the graveyard and wept over her neglected and sunken grave. This is the spirit in which listen to stories of empty towns crumbling to dust in Nevada deserts, of old quartz mills long silent, and deep mines deserted. Even for old residents, the ups and downs of Nevada life have a charm, and the narratives of big mushroom towns are read with interest. Such a history had Humboldt city. In 1863 its population was 600. The excitement was caused by the discovery of a very large body of quartz in the mountain two and a half miles south of where the Humboldt House now stands. The town located itself in a narrow canyon only wide enough for one street, with a row of houses on each side. There were some very fine buildings put up. One costing $25,000 was built by Price & Co. It was a two-story concern, the first of stone, the upper of adobe. It was designed for a saloon and dwelling. Lumber was worth at that time two hundred dollars a thousand and labor five dollars a day. It was found that the quartz did not contain much silver, and after working two years and going down two hundred feet, there was no improvement, and a stampede set in which had emptied it by 1865. There are now only two houses left standing. The cattle men and ranchers in the valley of the Humboldt have carried off the last board. The fine counters were used up for fencing, and the scroll work for fire-wood. Sugar-pine ceiling, elegant doors and windows, and all kinds of materials went to build up the Humboldt house and its surroundings. Meacham left nothing to rot, but made everything work in somewhere. On the side of a gently-sloping canyon which makes down from a big mountain 12 miles north of Mill City, can discover quite a cluster of houses. After passing the place something less than a hundred times without noticing anything, it struck the eye of a GAZETTE reporter last Friday, and the next thing was to find out what it was. The brakeman said it was a bunch of rocks, the conductor said he did not know. Finally an "old timer" was roused up who said that it was Central District, an old place quite well thought of years ago, but which has lain idle for a long time. Three or four men have recently gone in and are doing a little prospecting in the neighborhood. A five-stamp mill was built once, but it burned down four years ago. At the outlet of Humboldt lake, where its overflow used to run down a narrow canyon into Carson Sink, stands a deserted quartz mill that was built before the railroad came through, by an Eastern company. A dam was put in to raise the lake, but it was swept out long ago, and the property is going to ruin. Nevada affords many such instances, enough to fill quite a large book.

A SHARP EYE

The Overland Delayed.

The overland west bound train which should have arrived last evening did not reach Reno until seven this morning. The delay was caused by a washout on the Union Pacific, occurring east of Green river and forty miles west of Plum creek. The damages have been repaired and all trains are now running on time. The lightning train left Reno last evening instead of this morning, taking the place of the overland. In consequence of the detention of the overland, no mail arrived from the east last night.

A Splendid Banner.

A handsome campaign banner was stretched across Virginia street last evening, opposite the Reform Club hall. It bears fine portraits of Garfield and Arthur and the names on the Republican ticket for President and Vice President. The canvass is adorned with flags, shields and eagles. The whole is a beautiful work of art. The painting is done in harmonious colors. T. F. Laycock may well be proud of such a piece of work. It cannot be surpassed on the coast.

MOTHER BRICKERDYKE.

Some Account of one of the Famous Women of the War—Her Meeting with Secretary Schurz at Reno.

Prof. J. G. Lemmon of Oakland writes as follows to the S. F. Bulletin, concerning a well known resident of this county:

While at Reno the other day I had the good fortune to meet with "Mother Brickerdyke," as the Union boys used to call her. No adult lover of his country needs to be told who this lady is, or what her eventful and woeful history. Living at Galesburg, Ill., at the time of the breaking out of the rebellion, she at once hastened into the field, bearing a commission from the Governor of her State as Matron of Field Hospitals. So discriminating, careful and executive was she that she soon won the confidence of the general officers, who acquiesced in and generally assisted in carrying out her measures of relief. She was always at her post in the front, often exposed to direct fire, and made a target for rebel bullets, but was spared to perform much needed work all through the war and since. Thousands of soldiers came under her immediate care, and as she moved busily from point to point, now establishing a field hospital, now bringing up trains of supplies, she often came in contact with officers, but always to conquer and to carry on her humane work.

She had a theory that for all bad business, delinquency, or cruelty, some officer was to blame. If an orderly drove off one of her dairy cows (of which she always had several hundred on hand), she sent a provost guard after both cow and the orderly's officer.

She once punished a drunken surgeon by placing him out under an umbrella to sit for two hours on a pile of garbage which he had allowed to accumulate. He was very angry, and when released, went down to Sherman's headquarters and entered complaint. "Who do you say punished you?" asked the General. "Mother Brickerdyke," replied the surgeon. "Oh, well," replied Sherman, with a laugh, "you had better resign and go home. 'Mother Brickerdyke' is always right in her judgment, and besides, there is no help for you, for she outranks me."

"Mother Brickerdyke," as she will always be called, happened at the Reno depot when Secretary Schurz passed home lately. Eagerly that great statesman pressed through the throng, and in loud tones called her up to him and gave her such a greeting as few American women may claim. True to her instincts, Mrs. Brickerdyke soon began to lecture him upon certain duties which, she thinks, devolves upon him to perform, the while several voices called out from the train: "Well, well! There's our grand old 'Mother Brickerdyke' of the army hospital, and she's at her old business too, of commanding officers!" and each pressed forward to grasp her hand and claim recognition.

Mrs. B. is now 66 years old, rather stout, but hearty and active as ever. She comes of a long-lived family, and expects fifteen or twenty years of busy life yet. She has been foremost in establishing hospitals and orphan asylums in the East, and is now engaged in improving our school system, offering plans so wise and simple that our legislators will do well to hear and heed.

THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT.

He Will Pass Through Reno Next Tuesday—His Reply to the Agricultural Society.

The following response to the Agricultural Society's invitation to attend the Nevada State Fair, has been received from President Hayes.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Aug. 22, '80.

Dear Sir:—In answer to your invitation to the President, I am directed to say that he expects to go through Reno on the regular train Tuesday evening, Sept. 7. He would be glad to accept your invitation, but can not answer more definitely now.

Sincerely,
R. P. HAYES.

To J. M. FLANAGAN,
Sec'y, Reno, Nev.

The President proposes to visit the California State Fair at Sacramento. Our Fair will be held on the following week, and it is hoped that he may be induced to visit it. He might make a round trip to Reno, Carson, the Comstock and Lake Tahoe, and then go on his way to Oregon.

They Did Not Kill Old Hans.

Sheriff Walker yesterday arrested two men at Huffaker's, who were suspected of having murdered Old Hans in Jack Valley. They were brought to town and discharged this morning, their innocence of the crime being made clear. One of them was the man who was recently stabbed in front of the Opera saloon in Reno. The two are the same that the officers tried to arrest at Huffaker's last week. They escaped the first time and the Sheriff notified the Virginia officers to look out for them.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

Republican primaries for the election of delegates to the County Convention will be held to-morrow. The polling place for this precinct will be Justice Young's office. The polls will be open from 3 P. M. to 8 P. M. Printed lists of the nominees for delegates will be furnished voters at the polling places. From these slips the voters will scratch enough names to leave twenty-seven unmarked, the number of delegates from this precinct.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The President's Programme.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—President Hayes will be met at the State line on September 8th. He will participate in the Admission Day ceremonies on the 9th at Oakland. He goes to Oregon about the 13th, and returns overland to Sacramento, to be there on the 21st.

The Campaign in California.

The Republican campaign has actively opened here. Horace Davis spoke to an immense audience last night. More clubs have already formed than ever before in previous campaigns. Republican managers have no doubts about Garfield carrying California, Oregon and Nevada.

Price's Suit Against Dewey.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—In the suit of Rodman M. Price vs. S. P. Dewey to recover about a million dollars, the Circuit Court has sustained the defendant's demurrer, on the ground that no new facts have been discovered since the trial of the suit in New York in 1857.

Arrival of the Ho Chung.

The Chinese steamer Ho Chung arrived yesterday. She brought but few Chinamen.

Maine Sure for Garfield.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The Herald says Maine is sure for Garfield, as the Greenback schism is breaking visibly, and the temperance phalanx is breaking for Republicans.

Fire at Wheatland.

WHEATLAND, Cal., Aug. 31.—A large part of the business portion of the town was burned last night.

Darien Canal Stock.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The stock of the De Lesseps Panama Canal will probably be listed on the New York stock board in a few days.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Free Oratory and Music In The Theatre Last Evening.

The Democrats gathered in strong force in the Theatre last evening. Nearly every seat on the main floor was filled. There were a good many Republicans present. The Reno brass band was engaged for the occasion. Judge Cossitt presided as chairman, and made the first speech. He was followed by General Hagerman, Roger Johnson, and Charles Queen. The speakers were often interrupted by bursts of applause, and the meeting was enthusiastic to the close. The pointed and forcible remarks of Cossitt, the glowing oratory of Hagerman, the calm and classic eloquence of Johnson and the fiery invective of Queen in turn enchained the attention of the audience. The last named speaker was rather severe upon "what's his name—Garfield," dismissing him from his consideration after a few words of withering denunciation. He pronounced a glowing eulogy upon "the superb soldier," Hancock, saying that a monkey might make an effective answer to all that had been said against him. The monkey would simply pull down the corner of his eye, "and in our modern language say 'What are you giving us?'" The meeting broke up when Mr. Queen's speech concluded, with three cheers for Hancock and English.

Good Fishing at Pyramid.

J. F. Alexander, R. P. Chapin and others have returned from a trip to Pyramid Lake. They report the fishing good. During their stay last week the water was frequently too rough to be safe. The party had a very pleasant trip. The bodies of the man and boy recently drowned in the lake have not been recovered, and probably no trace of them will ever be discovered.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen in this vicinity, known to every one as a most influential citizen, and Christian Minister of the M. E. Church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure." It is having a tremendous sale over our counters and is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of Lung Diseases, such as nothing else has done. Bourbon, Ind., May 15, 1878. Drs. Matchett & France. REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Following is the text of the resolutions adopted by the Republican National Convention on Saturday, June 5, 1880:

Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and legal, and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where six per cent bonds sold at 86, to that where four per cent bonds are eagerly sought at a premium. Under its administration railways have increased from 21,000 miles in 1860 to more than 82,000 miles in 1879. Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,150,000,000 in the same time, and our exports, which were $20,000,000 less than our imports in 1860, were $264,000,000 more than our imports in 1870. Without resorting to loans it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and disbursed annually more than $30,000,000 for soldiers' pensions. It has paid $880,000,000 of the public debt, and by refunding the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $151,000,000 to less than $89,000,000. All the industries of the country have revived; labor is in demand; wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican party asks for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this convention submits for their approval the following statements of the principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts:

ENUMERATION OF PRINCIPLES.

First. We affirm that the work of the last twenty-one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved through immense difficulties should be preserved. That the peace regained should be cherished. That the dissevered Union, now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations. That the order established and the credit acquired should never be imperiled. That the pensions promised should be paid. That the debt so much reduced should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof. That the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce already so great should be steadily encouraged.

Second. The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and not a mere compact. Out of the confederated States it made a sovereign nation. Some powers are denied to the nation, while others are retained by the States; but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be determined by national and not by State tribunals.

Third. The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States, but it is the duty of the national government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of the intelligence in the several States, and the destiny of the nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one State, but by the average genius of all.

NON-SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.

Fourth. The constitution wisely forbids Congress to make any laws respecting an establishment of religion, but it is idle to hope that the nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism while each State is exposed to its particular domination. We therefore recommend that the constitution be so amended as to lay some prohibition upon the Legislature of each State, and to forbid the appropriation of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.

Fifth. We reaffirm the belief avowed in 1876, that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should be so discriminate as to favor American labor. That no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery having perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territories. That everywhere the protection accorded to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens of American adoption. That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water-courses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease. That the obligations to the men who preserved its integrity in the day of battle are undiminished by the lapse of fifteen years since their final victory. Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the grateful privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.

THE CHINESE PLANK

Sixth. Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with the Congress of the United States and the treaty-making powers, that the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese a matter of grave concernment and under the exercise of both these powers would limit and restrict that immigration by the enactment of such just, humane and reasonable laws and treaties as will produce that result.

Seventh. That the purity and patriotism which characterized the earlier career of Rutherford B. Hayes in peace and war, and which guided the thought of his immediate predecessor to him for a Presidential candidate, have continued to inspire him in his career as chief executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due to an efficient, just and courageous fulfillment of the public business, and will honor his interposition between the people and proposed partisan laws.

INIQUITIES OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Eighth. We charge upon the Democratic party the habitual sacrifice of justice and patriotism to a supreme and insatiable lust for office and patronage; that to obtain possession of the national and state governments and of the control of place and position, they have obstructed all the efforts to preserve the purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage; have devised fraudulent certificates and returns; have labored to unseat lawfully elected members of Congress, to secure at all hazards the vote of the majority of states in the House of Representatives; have endeavored to occupy by force and fraud places of trust given to others by the people of Maine, and rescued by the courage and action of Maine's patriotic sons; have by methods vicious in principal and tyrannical in practice, attached partisan legislation to appropriation bills; have crushed the rights of individuals, and vindicated the principles and sought the favor of rebellion against the nation, and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memories of the war and to overcome its inestimable good results—freedom and individual equality. We affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to use all the legitimate [illegible] this Union to secure the perfect harmony which may be practicable, and we submit to the practical, sensible people of the United State to say whether it would not be dangerous to the best interests of our country at this time to surrender the administration of the national government to a party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring destruction and confusion where there is now order, confidence and hope.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

REPUBLICAN

STATE TICKET

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

R. H. TAYLOR, : : : : STOREY
O. H. GREY, : : : WHITE PINE
E. A. MORTON, : : ESMERALDA

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT:

WILLIAM H. BEATTY.

FOR CONGRESS:

ROLLIN M. DAGGETT.

Resolutions Adopted by the Republican State Convention:

RESOLVED, That the platform of principles adopted by the National Republican Convention, at Chicago June last, deserves and receives the approval and hearty indorsement of all the Republicans of Nevada.

RESOLVED, That the hordes of Chinese that are coming in upon our shores to eat out our substance are destroying our country, impoverishing our mines, mining and laborers, debauching our youth, and making both men and women lower in the scale of humanity. This evil must and shall be stopped, and to this end we pledge the entire strength of the Republican party.

In the language of our great leader, we regard the immigration of Asiatics to the United States as little less than a servile invasion. Should the Commissioners now in negotiation with the Chinese Government fail to secure by the first of next January such modification of the Burlingame Treaty as will practically put an end to the influx of Chinese to this country, we demand that the treaty then be promptly annulled, and such laws enacted as will relieve us at once and forever of the Asiatic scourge now menacing the well-being of the Republic.

RESOLVED, That we most heartily indorse the general financial policy of the Republican party, which, in spite of every opposition on the part of the Democracy, has led to the resumption of specie payments, the raising of our national credit to a height never before known, and to the restoration of a national prosperity. But we also demand the complete restoration of silver coin to its former position by the side of gold; and for the purpose of attaining that end we hold it to be the duty of the General Government, through the authorization of Congress, to coin into standard dollars or other legal tender currency, at the cost of coinage, and for the benefit of the producer, the entire silver product of the country, relieving the mining industry from the loss attending the shipment to and sale of silver bullion in foreign markets.

As mining for the precious metals is the leading industry of Nevada, we are inflexibly opposed to the bill reported by the Committee on Mines and Mining, and now before the House of Representatives, prohibiting the following of fissure veins or deposits beyond the vertical lines of surface boundaries; and we urge our Representatives in both Houses of Congress to continue their efforts for its defeat. Such a restriction would work disaster to the labors of the prospector, and seriously retard the development of the mineral riches of the West, and we cordially indorse the action of our Representative, the Hon. R. M. Daggett, in this behalf.

RESOLVED, That the Republican party claims it to be the right and duty of State and Territorial Legislatures to regulate and restrict the charges of railroads exclusively within their respective boundaries, and that it is no less the constitutional right than the positive duty of Congress to regulate the tariffs and restrict the charges of inter-State railroads.

RESOLVED, That while we congratulate the country on the successful resumption of specie payments, and the splendid financial condition of the Republic, we are in favor of restricting the issuance of National and State legal tender notes, to denominations of not less than five dollars, thus creating an increased home demand, as a circulating medium, for the precious metals which our mines are annually yielding.

RESOLVED, That Gen. James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur, by their services to the country, by their devotion to principle, and by their unspotted reputation as men and as citizens, are deserving of the united and earnest support of all the loyal people of the United States for President and Vice President thereof. We rejoice in their nomination, and we pledge to them the electoral vote of Nevada at the ensuing election, by an overwhelming majority.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
